CURRICULUM VITAE

Kieshia Mace is a Certified Divorce Real Estate Expert™ handling the sale of real property in family law cases. Her professional and personal values of community involvement through volunteer work and developing deep relationships have informed every aspect of the way she serves her clients.

Kieshia is a Certified Home Partners in America agent; the program helps consumers in a lease with the option to purchase a home. Her experience volunteering for Partners in Housing, Habitat for Humanity, and Care and Share Food Bank — three nonprofits that support people experiencing homelessness and low-income families — makes her uniquely equipped to help families in distress due to divorce.

Kieshia's military background as an army guard expanded her leadership skills; as a squad leader, Kieshia trained soldiers on high-pressure missions, and military policies and procedures. She is also a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA). All of this service-oriented experience demonstrates Kieshia's ability to help people through difficult situations and create a safe space for both people to feel honored and respected.
